

HEAVY RAIN INC.
BEHIND THE CORNER

Once I heard a thunder
Lightnin' flash hit the road
And ten feet under
Ground he lied in a coat
Kind of strange magic Called this guy out

And I heard him screamin'
A woman's name
He said she put him
Into the shame
When he was dyin'
She let him be
Behind the corner
She spread her wings

In the midnight hour
Her skin's been cold
She has found her peace
Under the trees
In a swamp
Kind of satisfaction
Made this things be calm
I took attention by
Runnin' direction home

Direction home
Direction home
Direction home

I stopped in the kitchen
What do I see
Black-coated man's
Standing next to me
And I understood
Oh and I knew
The girl he's talking about
I'll meet her soon

I stopped in the kitchen
What do I see
Black-coated man's
Standing next to me
And I understood
Oh and I knew
The girl he's talking about
I'll meet her soon

I stopped in the kitchen
What do I see
Black-coated man's
Standing next to me
And I understood
Oh and I knew
