

HEAVY RAIN INC.
HEAVY RAIN

Looking at your picture
Remembering the days
Didn't forget your smell
Didn't forget the place
And our tree
Is still standing there –
Where we took shelter
Because of that heavy rain

'Turned my head
And the life still goes on
'Till now I haven't understood
What went wrong
We love each other
And we'll never get apart
Nobody of us wants to stop -
To make a new start

Oh I just
Realized
That all my life
I've tried to hide my past
And if I knew your name
If I could ease the pain
Be shure I would drive you home
And prepare for next to come

Oh I just...

Oh I just
Realized
That all my life
I've tried to hide my past
And if I knew your name
If I could ease the pain
Be shure I would drive you home
And prepare for next to come

Now I'm speaking to myself:
Am I wrong?
If my eyes don't see the truth
Is true this song?
So where is the truth?
What should I do?
Oh my babe I'm afraid of Asking you...
Oh nanana... yeah
